I offer this ocean of blissful, nectar torma, possessing the perfect desire qualities of the five senses, to the Earth Goddess Tsenma, the multitudes of three galaxy landlords, the five sisters of long life, (including Dekyong); to all the protectors who abide in Tibet and in this land and to all the local landlords, devas, nagas who abide in this region. In order to accomplish all the necessary conditions just as we wish, please accept this offering for ourselves and all our benefactors, without showing anger or jealousy.

Due to the power of the generosity and blessings of the Tathagatas, the power of dependent origination and the power of my pure motivation, may whatever we wish for be accomplished immediately without obstacles.
