

BUDDHA NATURE

You can grow your basic seed
Follow your soul, surrender your needs
You can grow your basic seed to heaven

It don't matter what your mama said
It don't matter what you feel
Because you have your lotus bloom inside
It don't matter what you think
It don't matter what you did
Because you have your lotus bloom inside.

You can grow your basic seed
Follow your soul, surrender your needs
You can grow your basic seed to heaven

Trees to grow and rivers flow and roots can cut concrete
Nothing's stopping nature's grace and glory
Da odils bloom every spring, do you think we're not the same?
We are all free to write our righteous story.

You can grow your basic seed
Follow your soul, surrender your needs
You can grow your basic seed to heaven
