

LOVE SONG FOR LAMA ZOPA RINPOCHE

I don't know how it works
But since I met you
My life has been "true blue"
Even in disaster
You shine me through
I know you'll take care of me
I know you'll take care of me

My life has been so blessed
You always reach me
Right there to teach me
And all I have to do
Is mind rest
I know you'll be there for me
I know you'll take care of me

Throughout all my lives
You are the sunrise
And you are the clear skies
And you dry the tears from my eyes
I know you take care of me
I know you'll be there for me

Not like I ever knew
You fill me completely
Satisfy so sweetly
When I am one with you
I know you take care of me
I know you take care of me

When comes my fear of death
I feel you in my heart
From me you'll never part
When it comes to take my last breath
I know you'll be there for me
I know you'll be there, waiting for me
