

MAHAMUDRA SAILOR

I find you in the ocean depths
I find you in the trees
I find you in the fallen leaves a dancin' in the breeze

The road is long before us now
But maybe we don't care
In every heart there is a smile
Perhaps I'll meet you there

Sailor fly, Sailor fly
To the distant shore we will rise (2x)
Open eyes

Winds blow hard and cars may crash
And sailors get lost at sea
Sparkling light flecks on the waves
Cry steady as she be

As we ride the changing tide
O'er calm and raging seas
In every moment of each breath
A voice calls out to me
Sailor fly, Sailor fly
To the distant shore we will rise (2x)
Open eyes

As we ride the changing tide
O'er calm and raging seas
In every moment of each breath
A voice calls out to me
Sailor fly, Sailor fly
To the distant shore we will rise (2x)
Open eyes
